

Streamlining the Selection Process

Workstream Recruitment helps companies automate and manage the entire recruitment process, including: job requisition, job profile creation, job posting, applicant attraction, screening, tracking, interview scheduling, offer letter generation and finally, making the hire. Workstream Recruitment can be implemented quickly to help companies automate and streamline their overall recruitment process.

Key Recruitment Capabilities

- Candidate Management, efficiently attracts, manages, screens and qualifies candidates.
- Career Site, a personalized career website hosted and maintained by Workstream.
- Compliance, reporting tools for preparing EEOC reporting information and evaluating the staffing process.
- Executive Recruiting, 6FigureJobs (www.6figurejobs.com), Workstream's wholly owned subsidiary, an online exchange where executive/senior-level job seeking candidates and recruiting companies can interact.
- Psychometric Profiling, provides advanced personality and performance profiling technologies, specifically for prescreening of applicants.
- Recruitment Research, candidate sourcing service for employers and recruiters.
- Virtual Recruiting, designed to outsource elements of a company's recruiting.

The screenshot displays the Workstream Recruitment software interface. The main window shows the 'Candidate Profile' for Danny Sacrey (ID: 3264767). The profile includes personal information such as first name, last name, telephone, email, address, city, state/province, zip/postal code, country, and language. It also shows the candidate's status as 'Hired' and the date of hire. A table below the profile lists various job requisitions and the candidate's status for each, including job number, job title, candidates, and job category. The interface is designed for easy navigation and management of recruitment processes.
